The dream begins with just a thought! All your hopes and dreams are created from a simple seed.

A person has the power to create his or her own life by choosing which direction they want go in at any given moment - but it takes work because there's no guarantee that what you wish will come true... But sometimes when we're really committed, determined; When the universe starts helping to align our path with our hard efforts-- sometimes these moments turn into something amazing: An opportunity where everything falls perfectly together until finally – you have success.

What's the point of this workbook?

We believe that with the planting of every seed, there needs to be a plan! A well thought out reason for why we are moving in a new direction and ensuring they are in line with our goals.

This workbook will allow you to contemplate some very important topics in preparation for moving forward with your dream career!

Why do you want to have a business with horses?

Who do you want to help by having a business with horses?

What are your expenses associated with horses now?

What would be new expenses
associated with starting your own business with horses?

This can include clinics, certifications, social media etc.

What would your hours of operation be?

Where is your target market located?

[illegible]

What is your gift in life? What is it that people continually tell you, you do for people?

Why do you believe that you could successfully be self-employed?

What amount of money do you need to make each month?

Write out you being there already!
What do you see, how do you feel,
what do you think? Be so clear in your achievement.
